

Dear Winters Open Mic Community,

Welcome to the February 2026 edition of the Winters Open Mic Newsletter.

For our February show we will again be inside the Winters Opera House at 13 Main Street. The show will be on Thursday, February 26th at 6:00 p.m. (sign-ups at 5:30).

Our remaining indoor Winter schedule is as follows:

- Thursday, February 26th
- Thursday, March 19th

Yes, there're only two more shows inside the Winters Opera House. In April, we will be back outside on Main Street.

REVIEW OF JANUARY SHOW

On January 15th, the Winters Open Mic welcomed in the year of the horse.

The host for the evening was Jeff "Lonewulff" McMoyler. The end-of-night jam tune was Hey Good Lookin' by Hank Williams.

"Say, hey, good-looking! Whatcha got cooking? How's about cooking somethin' up with me?"

Sadly, no one sent in pictures from the January show. However, we did get some additional pictures from our December show, courtesy of photographer Andy Wallace. So, here's a little more holiday cheer for you all...

Thanks to Waste Management

We'd like to extend an ongoing "Thank you!" to Waste Management for their sustaining donation to the Winters Open Mic! Their support helps us keep the music alive and the stage open for local talent.

Remember, the Winters Open Mic is a 501(c)(3) org that relies on public generosity. To make things more convenient, we're now accepting digital donations. Here's our QR code for PayPal.

Ways to keep in the loop...

In addition to this newsletter, see our website for other ways that you can connect with the open mic.

Thank you for sharing your talents and showing your support.

We hope to see you at the Winters Opera House on February 26th.
